Die niedersächsische Landesverfassung regelt, zusammen mit dem deutschen Grundgesetz, die Grundsätze unseres Zusammenlebens. Sie hat großen Einfluss nicht nur auf den Staat, dessen Organe und Ziele, sondern auch auf viele Aspekte unseres Alltags. Dabei wissen wir kaum, dass sie da ist. Gerade für unsere Generation ist sie fast unsichtbar...

Verse

I've been alone in my room for some time
Struck by, neglected, and torn by your eyes
No one would come in to turn on my lights
Help has been kept back ignoring my rights

Pre-Chorus

Papers written, grown-ups listen
Glasses filling, doubts kill

Chorus

Mama show me some lovin'
Mama take me to the place we were before
Mama show me some lovin'
And my stories go on, and on, and on...
Mama show me some lovin'
Mama take me to the place we were before
Mama show me some lovin'
And my stories go on, and on, and on...

Es ist nicht immer geil, jung zu sein. Das Kind, die Mutter – das sind wir alle. Eine ganze Generation, die von den Entscheidern vernachlässigt wird. Wir fallen bei vielen Entscheidungen häufig hinten rüber, wir fordern eine bessere Zukunft ein. Unsere Waffe? Unsere Paragraphen. Wie 4a, der uns altersgerechte Lebensbedingungen zusichert, oder 6c, der in Verantwortung künftiger Generationen Klimaschutz verspricht. Tatsächlich scheinen wir bei euren Entscheidungen keine große Rolle zu spielen.

Verse

Oh, be protected they said
Our paragraphs will keep you from madness
Oh, they're elected
And make decisions on our backs 'cause
It won't affect them
When climate strikes and worlds collide
Emissions spike, the people fight
In 30 years (so far from here)
No real chance 'til we take control
Cause we're unsatisfied with the status quo
Do we love our lives and just be their votes?
Will it be alright 'cause they told me so?

Pre-Chorus

Papers written, grown-ups listen
Glasses filling, doubts kill

„Paragraphs“

(Art. 4a NV)

Chorus

Come on show us some lovin'
People keep us from the dreams we're aiming for
Come on show us some lovin'
All we ask is come on, come on, come on...
Come on show us some lovin'
People keep us from the dreams we're aiming for
Come on show us some lovin'
All we're asking is love, come on, come on

Solo

Outro

All we say is think of us
All we say is talk to us
All we say is feel with is
All we say is think of us

All we say is think of us
All we say is talk to us
All we say is feel with is
All we say is think of us, think of us, think of us, think of us
